63.	If you had to spend a day without internet, what would you do?	I think that phones and internet have become a very important part of life. Because of this we have stopped giving importance to the real world. I believe that if there was no internet for a day, I would spend more time with my family members, go out and play in the park. I would also do activities such as drawing, cycling, going on walks with my siblings. So that is how I believe I would like to spend my day without internet. OR I think internet has become an inevitable part of our lives. It will be difficult to spend a day without access to the digital world but I think it will be a chance for me to connect with my surroundings as well. In this busy life, I have forgotten how much I used to love painting and drawing. So I think I will probably spend my time using all my paint brushes and start coloring my drawing book like I used to do when I was a child.

I am determined to work harder in future and show better performance. With the help of the highly experienced professors at _____ University, I really think that I will be able to score better marks in future. OR (If you have scored good marks in the past) I believe that I truly have given my 100% every time I had to sit for my examinations. I have scored _____% in my previous education that I believe shows how much determined I am towards my studies. I am aware that marks are not everything but in my opinion, examinations are meant to assess our performance and I am satisfied with my performance. OR (If you don't believe in marks) I don't think grades can ever justify a person's abilities. In my opinion, grades are just a measurement of our learning capacity. I don't think our grades are related to our abilities. However, I can say that I have showcased my abilities in the past by participating in a lot of academic and non-academic events where my teachers have appreciated my good qualities. In future, if I get a chance to study at _____ University, I will try my best to showcase all the talent and abilities that I have.

(VERY IMPORTANT) But I believe that every person has a different personality and it is up to us how we handle them professionally. So I try to adjust with everyone and make sure that the work is completed on time.
69.	If you're admitted to our program, what do you think your biggest challenge will be?	I think my biggest challenge will be – (choose any 1) - • Staying away from my family in a new country. But I am sure I will take out time everyday to talk to them and share with them about my life in Lithuania. • Adjusting to a new cultural environment. But I am taking this as a learning experience and I believe that this will be an opportunity for me to gain more cultural exposure and learn more about the world. • The language barrier. As most of the people in Lithuania, speak Lithuanian language, I might face some difficulties. But I am aware that the European countries have a very rich culture and deep respect for their languages. So I will be very happy to learn the local language and groom myself as an international student.

71.	Do you like pets? Why or Why not?	(answer as per your own choice) OR I like pet animals and in particular – • Dogs because they are loyal, fr iendly and loving. • Cats because they are very beautiful and intelligent.

72.	Any current events or the forefront of technology that has caught your attention?	(Choose as per your course) 1. Logistics – Artificial and Augmented Intelligence, Supply Chain Visibility (SCV), Automation of processes, Transportation Management Systems (TMS) 2. Business Informatics/Economics – Intelligent/Digital accounting, Blockchain development, Cyber-security 3. Computers - 3D Printing, Robotic Process Automation (RPA), Virtual Reality and Augmented Reality, 5G, Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning 4. Entrepreneurship and innovation - Business Intelligence Systems, Intent Intelligence, Cloud Team Management, Blockchain Technology. For example – (Logistics) – In today's time, one of the most rapidly increasing technologies in the field of supply chain and logistics would be IOT tracking and tracing devices. IOT devices have a huge demand especially in this field because they provide real-time tracking of all the goods. They can also trace the location, calculate the time required for travel and also provide information for the physical condition of the goods. I believe this is really a big innovative technological enhancement for this field. For example – (Business Informatics/Economics) – In today's time, Digital informatics is used to build accounting ecosystem. IT has become very important as it can be used in the field of Business analytics and finance. Many technologies such as data analytics, artificial intelligence, blockchain, digital-based technologies, etc are used to enhance the accounting and financing in today's business world.

73.	What is more important – completing a job on time or doing it right?	(If you want to say 'completing a job on time') I am a very punctual person who believes that every target should be achieved before the deadline. I think we must value everybody's time and make sure that nobody is troubled because of our delay. Completing a job on time also creates a proper system of operations. Everyone can work in a disciplined manner if the work is done on time. That is why I think that completing a job on time is very important. OR (If you want to say 'doing the job right') I believe that doing a job in the right manner is very important. Some tasks take a lot of time and effort and we cannot afford to do it again and again. So it is very important that it is done in the right manner with no mistakes. Being a perfectionist is everyone's dream but it takes a lot of determination to submit perfect tasks. This is why I think that we should not rush to complete the work but we should actually put in our hard work to complete it in the right manner. OR (If you believe that both statements are equally important) I don't think any one case is more important than the other. As a professional, we should make sure that there is a healthy balance between the two. We should make sure that the work is done on time before the deadline and that too in a right manner. I believe that a successful candidate is one who can be punctual as well as organized. As an aspiring international student, I realize that it is very important to maintain a performance that is punctual as well as perfect. So I think both the qualities are equally important.
74.	Tell me about a time when you had to work as part of a team?	You can tell about – • a group competition that you participated in • a team sports that you played • event from your job experience where you worked in ateam • if you helped your weak friend by making a group with other friends • if you have done charity work with your friends For example - I still remember while in school, there were a lot of dogs near our school area. Most of the students were very scared of dogs and used to hit them with pebbles. But I am an animal lover and always wanted to help them. So I gathered my friends who also felt the same pain started feeding these dogs after school. We used to bring dog food and bought some milk from the nearby grocery shop and fed them every afternoon. We also conducted a rally where we spread the message that we should not harm the stray animals but instead feed them. Looking at our initiative, the local people of the neighborhood also started taking care of the stray animals. Today, with my friends, we feed more than 100 dogs of our area and inspire others to do the same for the helpless animals.

75.	What is your back-up option?	(If you have a back-up option) For example – I truly believe in fate and destiny. I am obviously going to try my level best to get into this programme. And not just once, I will try again if I fail this time. However, I believe that if my destiny has other plans for me, I cannot fight it. I might turn to sports/art/music which is my deep passion. I will try to improve my athletic/artistic/music skills and probably try to make my career as a successful sportsperson/artist/musician. OR (If you don't have a back-up option) For example – I don't think I can ever have a back-up option.
