So that is why I have not involved myself in any other course or job right now.

6.	What subject in the high school did you find the most challenging/difficult?	I generally liked studying all the subjects in my last course but one subject that I found a little bit challenging was (choose any 1) (a) History because I had to stay up late at night to cram all the important dates and facts. (b) Math because I had a hard time solving complex equations and memorise length derivations. (c) Chemistry because sometimes I had to memorize a lot of formulae and their names which could become very difficult sometimes. (d) Physical education because I am not very good in sports and it was very hard for me to spend long hours in the sports ground in scorching heat during summers. But I knew I had to work hard on my weakness so I used to work day and night. Finally, I was able to score good marks in my exams and my parents and teachers were very proud of me.

7.	What subject in the high school was your favourite?	I generally liked studying all the subjects in my last course but one subject that I liked the most was – (choose any 1) (a) Punjabi because it is my mother tongue and it was very easy for me to score marks in this subject. Moreover, I was able to learn about our culture in this subject. (b) Mathematics because I really liked solving problems. I think because of mathematics, I have been able to develop a problemsolving aptitude and a technical approach towards studies. (c) English because I really like to learn new languages and I was always interested in learning this global language. Also since I always scored the highest in this subject, I was motivated to study this subject. (d) Physical Education because I was always very good in sports and this subject was the easiest for me to learn. I always scored the highest in this subject and really enjoyed learning about the sports.

9.	Why did you leave your studies and start working earlier?	(We never tell them that we started working because of financial needs, always tell them that you wanted to learn some professional skills) After completing my senior secondary education/Diploma/Bachelors, I was being offered a job that I felt was very good for my profile back then. I also thought that it was a good opportunity for me to learn about the professional world. OR I wanted to study more but studying in India meant gaining only theoretical knowledge. So I shifted towards gaining some marketable skills and enhancing my knowledge of the professional world. That is why I started working. OR Actually maam, I completed my previous education in 2019/2020/2021, but at that time, COVID was still affecting the entire world. So my parents did not feel safe sending me abroad for studies. So instead of wasting my time, I started working so that I could gain some skills and enhance my profile before applying for any college abroad.

10.	If you were working, why do you now want to resume your studies?	While I was working, I realized that I was capable of doing more. So I decided to enhance my profile and get an International degree which would help me boost my career. OR While working, my career reached a still point and my growth became very slow. So that is when I realized that I need to up-skill myself by gaining higher education. So now, I am motivated to get an international degree so that when I come back to India, I can get high-paying jobs very easily. OR While working, I realized the importance of Education and I felt that a Bachelor's/Master's degree is also very important. So that is why I want to boost my career by gaining a Bachelor's/Master's degree from abroad and enhance my profile.
11.	Why have you scored such less marks in your previous studies?	I am aware that my marks have not been satisfactory in my previous education which I believe has been my biggest mistake. However, I am determined to improve my track and put in all the hard work that is required to perform better and score better marks. I truly believe that studying at _____ University would become a chance for me to improve my profile and show that even I am a really determined student who can achieve success.

44.	Why did you not choose countries such as Latvia or Poland?	No doubt countries like Latvia and Poland can also be good options for higher education but for me, I was interested in studying in _____ University only. Since _____ University is one of the best universities providing such good education through practical methods, so I felt that I had to choose Latvia for my higher studies.
45.	Why did you not choose countries such as USA or Canada or UK?	As I was researching about good quality education, I did go through universities of USA/Canada/UK but these countries required huge amounts of money to study which was not a pocket-friendly option for me. Also, as compared to American and Australian countries, the European countries offer a much safer environment for its international students. So I focused on getting a European degree since European degrees are also worldwide recognized. And after comparing several European countries, I found Lithuania and Lithuanian Universities to be best suited as per my requirement.

63.	If you had to spend a day without internet, what would you do?	I think that phones and internet have become a very important part of life. Because of this we have stopped giving importance to the real world. I believe that if there was no internet for a day, I would spend more time with my family members, go out and play in the park. I would also do activities such as drawing, cycling, going on walks with my siblings. So that is how I believe I would like to spend my day without internet. OR I think internet has become an inevitable part of our lives. It will be difficult to spend a day without access to the digital world but I think it will be a chance for me to connect with my surroundings as well. In this busy life, I have forgotten how much I used to love painting and drawing. So I think I will probably spend my time using all my paint brushes and start coloring my drawing book like I used to do when I was a child.

64.	Do you think your marks justify your ability? Or Are you satisfied with your scores? Or Do your grades accurately reflect your ability? Why or Why not?	(If you have scored less marks in the past) I am satisfied with my previous scores but I definitely believe that I am capable of getting more. I have the ability to perform better. I am determined to work harder in future and show better performance. With the help of the highly experienced professors at _____ University, I really think that I will be able to score better marks in future. OR (If you have scored good marks in the past) I believe that I truly have given my 100% every time I had to sit for my examinations. I have scored _____% in my previous education that I believe shows how much determined I am towards my studies. I am aware that marks are not everything but in my opinion, examinations are meant to assess our performance and I am satisfied with my performance. OR (If you don't believe in marks) I don't think grades can ever justify a person's abilities. In my opinion, grades are just a measurement of our learning capacity. I don't think our grades are related to our abilities. However, I can say that I have showcased my abilities in the past by participating in a lot of academic and non-academic events where my teachers have appreciated my good qualities. In future, if I get a chance to study at _____ University, I will try my best to showcase all the talent and abilities that I have.

68.	What type of a person do you find it the most difficult to work with?	(In this question, first tell about the kind of people you cannot work with) For example - I really find it difficult to work with people who are – (choose any 1) - • Disrespectful people who do not respect their team members. • Lazy people who never complete their work on time and always case trouble to the team. • Dominating people who don't have any regard to other people's opinions. • Impatient people who lose their temper at every small issue. (VERY IMPORTANT) But I believe that every person has a different personality and it is up to us how we handle them professionally. So I try to adjust with everyone and make sure that the work is completed on time.
69.	If you're admitted to our program, what do you think your biggest challenge will be?	I think my biggest challenge will be – (choose any 1) - • Staying away from my family in a new country. But I am sure I will take out time everyday to talk to them and share with them about my life in Lithuania. • Adjusting to a new cultural environment. But I am taking this as a learning experience and I believe that this will be an opportunity for me to gain more cultural exposure and learn more about the world. • The language barrier. As most of the people in Lithuania, speak Lithuanian language, I might face some difficulties. But I am aware that the European countries have a very rich culture and deep respect for their languages. So I will be very happy to learn the local language and groom myself as an international student.

71.	Do you like pets? Why or Why not?	(answer as per your own choice) OR I like pet animals and in particular – • Dogs because they are loyal, fr iendly and loving. • Cats because they are very beautiful and intelligent.

72.	Any current events or the forefront of technology that has caught your attention?	(Choose as per your course) 1. Logistics – Artificial and Augmented Intelligence, Supply Chain Visibility (SCV), Automation of processes, Transportation Management Systems (TMS) 2. Business Informatics/Economics – Intelligent/Digital accounting, Blockchain development, Cyber-security 3. Computers - 3D Printing, Robotic Process Automation (RPA), Virtual Reality and Augmented Reality, 5G, Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning 4. Entrepreneurship and innovation - Business Intelligence Systems, Intent Intelligence, Cloud Team Management, Blockchain Technology. For example – (Logistics) – In today's time, one of the most rapidly increasing technologies in the field of supply chain and logistics would be IOT tracking and tracing devices. IOT devices have a huge demand especially in this field because they provide real-time tracking of all the goods. They can also trace the location, calculate the time required for travel and also provide information for the physical condition of the goods. I believe this is really a big innovative technological enhancement for this field. For example – (Business Informatics/Economics) – In today's time, Digital informatics is used to build accounting ecosystem. IT has become very important as it can be used in the field of Business analytics and finance. Many technologies such as data analytics, artificial intelligence, blockchain, digital-based technologies, etc are used to enhance the accounting and financing in today's business world.

73.	What is more important – completing a job on time or doing it right?	(If you want to say 'completing a job on time') I am a very punctual person who believes that every target should be achieved before the deadline. I think we must value everybody's time and make sure that nobody is troubled because of our delay. Completing a job on time also creates a proper system of operations. Everyone can work in a disciplined manner if the work is done on time. That is why I think that completing a job on time is very important. OR (If you want to say 'doing the job right') I believe that doing a job in the right manner is very important. Some tasks take a lot of time and effort and we cannot afford to do it again and again. So it is very important that it is done in the right manner with no mistakes. Being a perfectionist is everyone's dream but it takes a lot of determination to submit perfect tasks. This is why I think that we should not rush to complete the work but we should actually put in our hard work to complete it in the right manner. OR (If you believe that both statements are equally important) I don't think any one case is more important than the other. As a professional, we should make sure that there is a healthy balance between the two. We should make sure that the work is done on time before the deadline and that too in a right manner. I believe that a successful candidate is one who can be punctual as well as organized. As an aspiring international student, I realize that it is very important to maintain a performance that is punctual as well as perfect. So I think both the qualities are equally important.
74.	Tell me about a time when you had to work as part of a team?	You can tell about – • a group competition that you participated in • a team sports that you played • event from your job experience where you worked in ateam • if you helped your weak friend by making a group with other friends • if you have done charity work with your friends For example - I still remember while in school, there were a lot of dogs near our school area. Most of the students were very scared of dogs and used to hit them with pebbles. But I am an animal lover and always wanted to help them. So I gathered my friends who also felt the same pain started feeding these dogs after school. We used to bring dog food and bought some milk from the nearby grocery shop and fed them every afternoon. We also conducted a rally where we spread the message that we should not harm the stray animals but instead feed them. Looking at our initiative, the local people of the neighborhood also started taking care of the stray animals. Today, with my friends, we feed more than 100 dogs of our area and inspire others to do the same for the helpless animals.

75.	What is your back-up option?	(If you have a back-up option) For example – I truly believe in fate and destiny. I am obviously going to try my level best to get into this programme. And not just once, I will try again if I fail this time. However, I believe that if my destiny has other plans for me, I cannot fight it. I might turn to sports/art/music which is my deep passion. I will try to improve my athletic/artistic/music skills and probably try to make my career as a successful sportsperson/artist/musician. OR (If you don't have a back-up option) For example – I don't think I can ever have a back-up option. My dream ever since I was a student was to work in the field of _____. I will try again and again to study this course. I truly believe that hard work always pays off. If we keep making efforts, we will be able to finally reach our destination. So I don't want to keep a fall back option. I am focused on my goal and I am determined to achieve it successfully.
